Tax Resale and HHS Poverty Guidelines

QUALIFICATIONS FOR EXEMPTION FROM TAX RESALE

The owner may qualify for an exemption from tax resale if the following conditions are met: (1) The real property contains a single-family residential dwelling; (2) The owner of the property is 65 years of age or older or has been classified as totally disabled; (3) The real property is not currently being used as rental property; (4) The owner of the property has a gross annual income lower than the Federal Poverty Guidelines; and (5) The fair market value of the property as reflected by the county assessor does not exceed $180,000.00.

An Application for Exemption from Tax Resale and evidence of your eligibility must be submitted to the Tulsa County Treasurer before resale each year.

Taxes, interest, costs, and fees will continue to accrue while the exemption is claimed. To remain eligible for exemption from tax resale homeowner must reapply and qualify for this exemption each year. If the homeowner becomes ineligible or fails to apply for the exemption, the county treasurer shall proceed to sell the property for non-payment of taxes.

If you feel you may qualify for exemption, please contact the Tulsa County Treasurer at 918-596-5071 to request the application.

Please refer to Oklahoma Statute Title 68 Section 3105.
