Absentee Ballot Request Form Available for 2021 Elections

(Oklahoma City) - Voters interested in voting by absentee ballot during the 2021 election year, can request absentee ballots now using the State Election Board's online OK Voter Portal or download and print an application from the State Election Board website. Applications are also available at the Tulsa County Election Board and can be emailed, faxed, or mailed to the County Election Board.

Voters can request ballots for a single election or all elections in which they are eligible to vote during the election year. Interested voters will need to submit a new request for the 2021 election year.

The deadline to request an absentee ballot for the January 12 election is 5 p.m. Tuesday, January 5, 2021. The list of elections is available on the State Election website.

Voters with questions should contact the Tulsa County Election Board at 918-596-5780. The Tulsa County Election Board is located at 555 N. Denver, Tulsa. Office hours are Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. to 5:00p.m.
