EARLY SETTLEMENT MEDIATION – TULSA PROGRAM ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYSTEM

APPLICATION FOR VOLUNTEER MEDIATOR PLACEMENT

Thanks for your interest in the Early Settlement mediation program. The program is funded by the Supreme Court of Oklahoma, City of Tulsa, Tulsa County & private donors and utilizes volunteers who have been trained and certified by the Administrative Director of the Courts. The initial basic training is a 20-hour course provided at no charge to volunteer applicants who agree to give 10 hours of volunteer service to the program each year. Generally, there is a basic training held each year in the metro Tulsa area.

Upon receiving your application, the mediator selection committee will review it and, upon acceptance, notify you of training opportunities as they become available. Additional information may be requested by the local program director in order to process the application. Upon completion of the training you will be scheduled to observe a certified mediator conducting two cases, be observed mediating a case and given feedback in order to be considered for certification.

On this _____ day of _____, 20____, I, _____, upon having completed the application submitted to the selection committee, understand that upon acceptance into the 20 hour basic mediation training, I will be fulfilling the first in a series of volunteer qualifying events for the area mediation program. The next step in the series is the satisfactory completion of a 20-hour introductory mediation training program. My satisfactory completion will be based on evaluations by the local program director with input from training program facilitators, group leaders and coaches. The evaluation is focused on my understanding of the mediation process as demonstrated through performance. I understand that this training will qualify me to move on to the next phase of certification as a mediator pursuant to the provisions of the Dispute Resolution Act, 12 O.S. Supp. 1991 sections 1801 et seq., and I will be notified by the local program director or coordinator of my additional certification requirements including, at a minimum, observing a mediation conducted by a certified mediator and my being observed while conducting a mediation.

Upon attaining certification as a mediator pursuant to the provisions of the Act, I agree to provide a minimum of 10 hours per year of service to the certified programs of the Oklahoma Alternative Dispute Resolution System (ADRS). If I choose not to continue in this process, I will notify the local program director or coordinator, in writing, of my intent to discontinue participation in the mediation program.

I understand that the Act (i.e. certification, confidentiality, liability, privilege, etc.) is applicable to me only when I am mediating for a certified program of the Oklahoma ADR System and am acting as a volunteer. I will not claim, advertise or assert that I am certified as a mediator except in reference to my volunteering under the authority of a certified program of the Oklahoma ADR System.

I UNDERSTAND THAT I MAY BE RELEASED, AT ANY TIME, FROM DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES AS A CANDIDATE AND/OR CERTIFIED MEDIATOR, BY THE LOCAL PROGRAM DIRECTOR OR COORDINATOR, OR THE MEDIATION TRAINER.
